GLASS BREAKS, CAT HISSES

DAD: Whoa! You mind telling me why my daughter is currently destroying the house and scaring the cat?

DAUGHTER: Dad, I'm not trying to. I'm making some major decisions for my future.

DAD: OK, I'll take the bait. What's this all about?

DAUGHTER: I'm glad you asked. It's my plan to pay for college.

DAD: This is a plan?

DAUGHTER: It's the makings of a plan. After the money you and Mom saved, I figured out I would still need some financial aid in loans. So I have to make some tough decisions now to guide my future college career.

DAD: Well, maybe we should start over.

NARRATOR: Alexa knows she needs a plan to pay for college, but she doesn't know the right way to start one. She needs a game plan. Iowa Student Loan's Student Loan Game Plan can help.
